

Traffic During Summer Period 2023

Ahead of the upcoming summer period, we would like to remind our customers to plan and book deliveries well in advance. Please see below for general information regarding our markets. If there are specific requirements for loading/unloading dates, these must be explicitly specified in the booking. Feel free to consult with your local NTEX contact.

Please note that capacity for vehicles and space on ferries is limited during the summer. NTEX reserves the right to come back with any additional costs in these cases, as our suppliers have changed lead times and capacity during this period. Naturally, we will do everything we can to ensure that your deliveries arrive on time, so do not hesitate to contact us!
